The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others, showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all "wasting diseases" where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and, through them, the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

WITNESSES FOR THE DEFENSE DISCOMFITTED.

The defense in the Haywood murder trial now in progress in Boise, Idaho, got two stiff raps at the hands of the prosecution yesterday. Several of its witnesses, called to testify that they had heard Orchard make threats against the life of Steunenberg, on personal grounds, went up against a pretty savage line of cross-examination.

The value of one of them as a witness for the defense was absolutely destroyed, while another gave up information quite as useful to the State as to the defense. Still a third, though he stood stanchly on many statements he had made, went badly to pieces on one point.

It was rather a notable array of witnesses that the defense marched up to the firing line. Among them was an old soldier, who admitted before he left the stand that he had been twice confined in an insane asylum. He was followed by John M. O'Neil!, the editor of the Miners' Magazine, the official organ of the Western Federation of Miners.

Before O'Neill, had retired Senator Borah had succeeded, by the simple process of asking O'Neill if he wrote some of the articles in the magazine, in getting into evidence some extracts about Steunenberg from the Miners' Magazine, which the court had excluded on direct evidence.

Among the extracts read were the following:

"The press dispatches report the dissolution of Steunenberg via the bomb route."

"A chap by the name of Steunenberg was blown up the other day at Caldwell. He came into fame as the inventor of that revered institution known as the 'bull pen.' It seems a bomb was carelessly left at his gate, presumably by some Russian revolutionist. Such carelessness should be frowned down. The gate was completely wrecked."

Senator Borah read an editorial appearing in the Miners' Magazine of January, 1906, beginning with the statement that Steunenberg had been "issued into eternity, and thus had closed the career of a man who showed no mercy." Continuing, the editorial, in most inflammatory terms, detail outrages in the "bull pen" in 1899, attributing to Stuenenberg the responsibility for the calling in of "black brutes of soldiers who outraged the wives and sisters of miners and refused the request of a miner who, with the dew of death upon his brow, asked for a minister and was told that he could make his confession in hell."

The editorial went on to say that the death of Steunenberg was a step forward, but that the murder of one man did not destroy the system adopted by the capitalistic class. In conclusion, the editorial said that the sudden extermination of Steunenberg was not of great moment. "because Steunenberg's would continue to rise."

O'Neal said he wrote the editorial and that it expressed the views of the organization.

Tetter Cured.

A lady customer of ours had suffered with tetter for two or three years. It got so bad on her hands that she could not attend to her household duties. One box of Chamberlain's Salve cured her. Chamberlain's medicines give splendid satisfaction in this community.—M. H. Rodney & Co., Almond, Ala. Chamberlain's medicines are for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Rare Raiment in London.

One of the sensationally beautiful dance dresses of the present London season, about which there has been much delighted comment, was made of delicate gold tissue, accordion-pleated. Worn by a married belle, whose splendid display of exquisite diamonds looked most effective flashing above the gold, this toilette scored a great success at a recent ball.

Those who saw it were reminded of the dress, as simple in design and as marvelously radiant and becoming in effect, that was worn by the Crown Princess of Roumania at the coronation. It was posed upon heliotrope tulle, which added to the gold just a suggestion of color that intensified its brightness.

This robe the Crown Princess pinned on to herself, as she is a great believer in the power of pins instead of stitchery, and depends upon the finishing touches that a clever woman can achieve for herself, for that perfect result in the arrangement of draperies than can only be secured when the gown is on.

The most wealthy Americans who are seen at the fashionable London functions are notorious for their rich but quiet style of dress, leaving sartorial insanities for those of noble lingeage. A girl whose fortune in prospect is enormous will dance in the simplest of white tulle frocks, bordered with wreaths of white or tiny pink roses or with traveler's joy, a flower that is being used this season by an exclusive dressmaker to excessive simplicity.

Centre panels and trimmings that fall from the waist down the front of the skirt are quite the latest note in evening dresses for receptions of ceremony.

Curtailing Power of Lords.

The three-day debate in the British House of Commons ended at midnight last night. When Premier Campbell-Bannerman's resolution in favor of curtailing the power of the House of Lords in vetoing bills passed in the House of Commons was carried by 432 to 147, amid loud ministerial cheers.

The amendment introduced by A. Henderson (laborite, Durham) for a total abolition of the House of Lords was previously rejected by 316 to 100, the minority being composed of laborites, nationalists and a few radicals. In this division the unionists, as a body, abstained from voting.

The speeches throughout have been of an interesting character, maintaining a high level. Herbert H. Asquith, chancellor of the exchequer, in winding up the debate, remarked incidentally that, in his view, the opinion of the country was against a single chamber. By adopting Premier Campbell-Bannerman's resolution, he said, they would take the first and longest step on the road to the final emancipation of the people.

The Premier, on leaving the House, was given a great ovation.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 27, 1907.

THE proceedings in the trial of former Judge William G. Loving for the killing of Theodore I. Estes in Nelson county several weeks ago, is read with interest daily. Some people are inclined to believe that the ex-judge was a victim of precipitancy, rashness, brain storm or some other distemper, and that young Estes should, at least, have been given an opportunity to make an explanation or defense. As the trial progresses many things are brought out which the world would never have known had the tragedy not occurred, and the notoriety the former judge and his daughter have obtained is unenviable. The prosecution, it is said, will attempt to prove that Miss Elizabeth Loving's story of her drive with the young man her father killed was false. The State, in fact, declares it can prove there had been no assault. The plea of the defense is that the mind of Judge Loving had, after years of dissipation, which frequently caused him to have delirium tremens from excessive drinking of whisky, became so impaired that when he heard the story of his daughter, that she had been drugged and assaulted, he became deranged and was not responsible for his act in killing Estes. Counsel for the defense through the plea of emotional insanity succeeded today in preventing any attempt to impeach the statement of Miss Loving.

MR. S. G. BRENT, of this city, who has just returned from Richmond, when asked concerning the vacancy in this judicial circuit said:

I do not believe that the governor will make an appointment after his positive declaration early in March that he would leave the people, through their representatives in the legislature, free to select a judge without the embarrassment of an incumbent whose term by appointment would be only temporary. I believe that I can say positively that Gov. Swanson will make no appointmen unless Judge Barley, who is acting as circuit judge in addition to his duties as judge of the Corporation Court of this city, should ask the governor to relieve him of the duties of the circuit judgeship.

Under the constitution it is just as much the Governor's duty to fill a vacancy as it is the legislature's duty to elect officers. Governor Swanson through bad advice and worse judgment made a great mistake when he failed to appoint a judge for this circuit when Judge Nicol resigned. It is the nature of men to err but of fools to persist in erring. Does the Governor wish to place himself in the last mentioned category?

TWO MILLION DOLLARS, left in the will of the late John C. Proctor, is to be utilized by the Proctor endowment at Peoria, Ill., in the establishment of a laundry for boys and girls, who will be paid wages; a day nursery for mothers and children, a manual training school for worthy boys and an orphanage. Already $350,000 has been spent for a home for the aged. Mr. Proctor outlined that he desired to provide opportunity for wage-earning to the largest number of deserving poor. His gift to the Cottage Hospital aggregates $300,000. Mr. Proctor regarded too much money a curse, and preferred to spend his entire fortune for those in real need. Money is doubtless a dangerous power in the hands of the prodigal and the thoughtless, and many it is believed are better off in having but little to handle.

IN ORDER to officer and man half a dozen new battleships and cruisers that are being put in commission at the present time the Navy Department has found it necessary to resort to the unusual plan of stripping the men from a number of the older warships and either putting those ships out of commission or holding them in reserve. While the actual fighting strength of the navy is being increased, the number of the vessels actually in commission and ready for service on a moment's notice is growing very slowly. Still the building of war ships goes right along and the "Peace Conference" continues its sessions at The Hague!

ANOTHER blow has been aimed by the House of Commons at the British House of Lords. The resolution curtailing the power of the peers in vetoing measures passed by the Commons was passed by a large majority. The House of Lords has for a long time been regarded by many persons in England as a useful adjunct to the British government, while a majority of the people, however, have viewed with apprehension its abolition. The House of Lords, in fact, is looked upon by sober-minded Britons as an English bulwark and the last blow aimed at it will like many others, fall short of the mark.

ADVICES from Paris state that Marcellin Albert, who organized the great revolt of winegrowers against the government, has been practically deposed from control of the movement he started. Albert was ordered by the Argelliers committee of safety to go to Montpellier and surrender himself to the authorities, which he did. This, it is believed, will eliminate him as the dominating factor in the revolt. So ends Albert. As nothing succeeds like success, conversely nothing fails like a failure.

From Washington.

[Correspondende of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 27.

Another reorganization of the Isthmian Canal Commission is under consideration by the President and Secretary Taft. Demoralization has again struck the Panama canal workers, and it is said that there is to be a new deal all around. Lieutenant Colonel George W. Goethals, of the army engineer corps, who succeeded John F. Stevens, as chief engineer on the canal, after having been on the isthmus less than four months, has, it is said, found the job to big for him. It is reported that he has applied for four months leave of absence, and has asked to be relieved of his assignment as a member of the Isthmian Canal Commission, and chief engineer of the work. Major David D. B. Gaillard, also an army engineer, and second to Col. Goethals, on the canal commission, has also, it is said, asked to be relieved. Jackson Smith, of Cincinnati, head of the department of labor and quarters, and a member of the commission, who is now in this country on leave of absence, is reported to have tendered his resignation, and the same report comes from the isthmus regarding Col. Beird, who has been in charge of railways and transportation.

Although Secretary Bishop, of the canal commission, says he knows nothing of these prospective changes, there is reason to believe that the reports are well founded. The resignation of three members of the commission would, of course, require its entire reorganization and would be a source of considerable chagrin and disappointment to both the President and Secretary Taft, who had hoped that in putting the canal work in the charge of army engineers, the problem of construction had been solved. As nearly as can be ascertained, the trouble arises largely from a general spirit of dissatisfaction and demoralization which spread among the canal employes with the departure of Chief Engineer Stevens. There does not seem to be any special complaint against the officers, but things have not run so smoothly and interest in the work on the part of the men has flagged. To such an extent, it is reported has this grown, that the higher officials have become affected, and the four men named want to quit. The bottom of the whole trouble is said to be politics. The real reason for the resignation of John F. Stevens, a step which he did not want to take, has never been made public. He was making an excellent record, and was fast pushing the excavation work up to a million yards a month. Then he noticed that the class of men being sent to him from the States, was deteriorating. They were mostly incompetent, and chosen not for their capacity in any line of work but apparently because of their political pull. He protested, declaring his reputation was at stake, and that he would be compelled to leave the work if the policy of which he complained, was kept up. There was no material improvement, however, and finally Stevens resigned and the present unfortunate conditions, which will undoubtedly delay the work on the canal, is the result.

Consul Plumacher, at Maracaibo, Colombia, has reported to the State Department that all ports on the Gulf of Venezuela, with the exception of Bahia Honda, Manaure and Tucacas, have been closed to commerce because of reports of an uprising among the Indian tribes on the peninsula of Goajiros, although the Colombian government insists that no such uprising has taken place.

The Jockey Club has again rejected the application for a license to hold a race meeting at Jamestown.

Arguments which will extend over two days, were begun today in the Interstate Commission in the famous Spokane rate case. In this case Spokane is fighting against higher rates from the east than are given to Pacific Coast points, refusing to acknowledge the doctrine of water competition by Cape Horn, for the by the Northern Pacific lines as a defense. Besides the Hill lines, the Pacific coast points have lawyers present to advocate the justice of the present schedules. Brooks Adams, of Boston, opened the argument for the complainants. The responsibility of the holder of a public trust, was the the text of his remarks.

The new steamer of the Hamburg-American Line, to be built at Belfast, Ireland, although it will eclipse the Cunard steamers in displacement, being 50,000 tons, compared with 33,000, will not be a speed maker. It will not exceed eighteen and one-half knots. It will have non-turbine engines and twin screws. It is expected to be ready for service in 1910.

One of the largest fires Berlin has ever known yesterday destroyed the great warehouses and stables of the Berlin Omnibus Company. The whole fire brigade vainly fought the flames for many hours, but the firemen saved the adjoining Royal Victualing warehouses, where 5,000,000 liters of spirits were stored. These were threatened for a long time, causing fears of a terrific explosion.

Before Secretary Taft leaves on his summer vacation, early in July, he will issue an order which will practically abolish the Isthmian Canal Bureau, now being maintained in Washington. It has been decided by the Secretary and the President that nearly the entire force stationed in Washington shall be transferred to the isthmus, and this includes Joseph B. Bishop, secretary and historian of the commission.

Reports reaching Dallas, Texas, yesterday evening state that extensive damage was done at Mounds, Keefeo, Jenks and all over the Glenn Pool oil district of Oklahoma by a tornado which swept down from the north yesterday. At Tulsa the damages are heavy. Several lives are reported to have been lost around Red Fork, Sapulpa and southward in the oil fields. Many oil derricks were blown down, and the property loss will be large.

It was stated by a member of the executive board of the Building Trades' Alliance in Washington last night that another strike will be declared on the municipal building today, as a result of the nonunion plumbers (the cause of the recent strike there) resuming work yesterday. All the bricklayers and two other trades employed on the new Elks' Club went out on strike yesterday because nonunion workers were employed on the steel construction.

Cornell won the varsity eight-oared race at the intercollegiate regatta for the eighth time late yesterday evening in the most exciting contest ever rowed over the four-mile Poughkeepsie course by less than two yards. Cornell's time over the course was 20:02 2-5 seconds. Columbia was second, United States Naval Academy third, Pennsylvania fourth, Wisconsin fifth, Georgetown sixth, and Syracuse did not finish, her shell being swamped half a mile from the finish line.

The highest price ever paid for an American coin of regular issue, $3,600, was given in Philadelphia yesterday for the 1804 dollar at the second day's sale of the Stickney collection, and this coin once more regained its title of the "King of American Coins," of which it was deprived last year when $2,165 was paid for an 1822 half eagle. The same unknown buyer who got the New York doubloon Tuesday, thought to be a well-known Philadelphia collector, also got the rare dollar.

The Southern Railway has disposed of its interest in the Central of Georgia Railroad to Oakley Thorne, president of the Trust Company of America, and Marsden J. Perry, president of the Union Trust Company, of Providence, R. I. The Southern Railway's interest in the stock of the Central has always been purely monetary, absolute control of the stock having been vested in outside parties. Nevertheless there has been a lot of fault found in the South with the Southern's interest in the competing line, and the present agitation against railroads has not tended to improve the situation.

The Varsity race at New London, Conn., will take place at 6:30 o'clock this evening.

THE LOVING TRIAL.

At yesterday session of the court at Houston, Halifax county, the defense in the Loving murder trial put on the stand two witnesses, who testified as to the habits of Judge Loving and his excessive drinking.

The first was Sheriff John P. Beard, of Amherst, who said he had known the accused since his birth, and that he was present when Loving was admitted to the bar, twenty-six years ago, and that he had the brightest prospects of any man in the country. Soon after going to the bar he was elected to the general assembly, and began to drink excessively. The witness said that the accused had been on a spree for four consecutive years, never being from under the influence of liquor, and that he repeatedly suffered from delirium tremens. So fast did he go down and unfit himself for business, that he would not consult him for advice and would not ask him to prepare legal papers. "The character of the man after he had begun to drink was wholly changed," said the witness. "While sober, Judge Loving was an agreeable and amiable man, but under liquor he was cross, irritable, disagreeable, and quarrelsome. He was never afraid of anything or anybody. Because of his habits his home and his belongings had been sold out by the sheriff in execution of a decree of court to satisfy the creditors of the accused. Later Judge Loving had gone to his old home and his wife returned to her home. Then he had taken the Keeley cure and since that time had done very little drinking, having been under the influence of liquor but twice in recent years."

Beverley R. Harrison, of Amherst, told the same story as did the preceding witness, saying that he had on several occasions sat up with Judge Loving when he was on debauches.

Dr. Charles M. Emmons, of Washington, formerly of Hammond's Sanatorium, New York, was called as an expert, and for an hour and a half the witness was on the stand. His direct testimony was in response to the hypothetical question propounded by the defense, which reviewed life, habits, and character, the crime, and the cause thereof, with which Loving is charged. Asked as to the condition of the mind of a man under the circumstances, when told that his daughter, the object of his affections and admiration, had been subjected to indignities and had been brought home insensible from drink, witness said that, in his opinion, the accused was insane.

Witness said that he had been engaged in the practice of his profession for more than twelve years, and in that time had devoted himself to diseases of the brain and nervous troubles. Replying to a question as to the effects of alcohol on the nervous system, he said that a great many cases of insanity were due to alcoholism. He technically described the effect of alcohol on the brain, saying that a man with delirium tremens would never wholly recover from the effects of the attack. He might be restored to sanity, but the traces of alcohol and the delirium tremens would ever remain.

He had examined Judge Loving ten days ago in his office at Washington, applying the usual tests, and he was convinced that his brain was diseased. "One case of delirium tremens may produce a case of permanent and incurable insanity," said the witness. "Whatever may be the recovery, however, the brain will ever show that it is impaired, and a man is never again fully himself after an attack."

"Do you regard Judge Loving an insane man today?" asked Wood Bouldin, of the prosecution.

"I cannot say, for I have not examined him since he was in my office in Washington, ten days ago," said Dr. Emmons.

With this the defense rested its case, and the State announced that it would begin rebuttal and seek to discredit the testimony of Miss Loving and the statement she made to her father.

"The State," said Mr. Harmon, "will undertake to show that Miss Loving told Miss Kidd an entirely different story; that she was not drugged; that she had alighted from her buggy herself and that the buggy in which she was riding had been followed by another couple all the way.

He further stated that the prosecution had witnesses to produce who saw Miss Loving and her escort at the very place where it was claimed the assault was committed, and would testify that the dead man offered no indignity to the young lady.

The jury was sent out of the room and the lawyers engaged in a long debate over the relevancy of the evidence sought to be introduced, the defense holding that such testimony had no direct bearing on the case at bar and was wholly collateral. The only question that could be introduced was one which had been already opened up by direct testimony and on cross-examination.

"We will show," said Mr. Harmon, with great emphasis, "that Loving killed Estes in malice, because of alleged misdeeds. We will show that the liquor was not drugged, and we will show that Loving made no attempt to ascertain the correctness, by inquiry, of the statements of his daughter. And in that we believe that he was negligent."

The prosecution made a vigorous effort to put Anna Kidd upon the stand to prove that Elizabeth Loving was not drugged and that no attempt was made by Theodore Estes to assault her. This was resisted as vigorously by the defense.

Mr. R. W. Moore, of the defense, referred to the ruling in the Thaw case, saying that the statements made by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, and which had caused the killing of Standford White by Thaw, had been raised, and that Jerome had not even insisted that they be admitted, recognizing that they were in no way connected with the actual killing, and that only the occurrence directly associated with the crime could be presented.

Judge Barksdale took the case under advisement, asking for the authorities cited, and will announce his decision today. An effort will be made to clear the name of Theodore Estes.

Before all of the testimony in the case is concluded, it is expected the attorneys for the prosecution will petition the court to order the jury to Nelson county in order that a drive may be taken over the roads traveled by Miss Loving and young Estes.

M. K. Estes, father of the victim, and other relatives are very anxious that this step be taken. They argue that the section being thickly populated and the roads in plain view of a score or more houses would render it impossible for such a crime as charged to have been committed without being witnessed by a number of people. If this step is taken, the trial will be continued for several days longer than otherwise.

If the prosecution is able to get its testimony before the court, Commonwealth Counsel Bouldin proposes to put Miss Kidd, Miss Loving's closest friend, on the stand in an effort to show that the latter's story of drugging and mistreatment by Estes is untrue.

The prosecutor's contention is that Miss Loving was intoxicated, did not wish to return home in that condition, was accordingly taken to the Kidd home and put to bed, and that she concocted the account of the attack on her to save her father, who, the Commonwealth Attorney holds, killed Estes as the result of a quarrel over some entirely different matter.

Houston, June 27.—At the opening of court today Judge Barksdale rendered his opinion regarding the admissibility of evidence by the prosecution for the purpose of proving that Miss Loving's story of being drugged and ruined by Theodore Estes, who was killed by her father, was false and untrue. The decision was against the prosecution and the evidence will not be admitted. This ruling is a great victory for the defense.

Mat H. McGinnis of Lovingston was the first witness called by the prosecution today. He saw Judge Loving just before and just after the shooting. His account of what transpired, in so far as he saw, was about the same as given by other witnesses.

E. L. Kidd was the next witness called by the prosecution. He is clerk of Nelson county court, and Miss Loving spent the night prior to the killing of Theodore Estes at his house.

The witness had known Judge Loving for years, and testified that he regarded him as a sane man. Witness was asked about the handwriting of the defendant which he said was bold and clear. He was asked about Judge Loving's hunting record, to which he replied "He has the reputation of being a very fine shot."

"Do you know whether there is any hereditary taint of insanity about Judge Loving?"

"I never heard of any."

"What was the temperament of Judge Loving?"

"He had a reputation of being very high tempered."

W. M. Dawson and J. O. Loving, both of Lovingston, were called to prove that Judge Loving was not insane and that they never heard it suggested until after the tragedy that he was insane.

J. O. Loving, who is not a relative of the defendant, testified that he considered Judge Loving a high tempered man, who thought everybody wrong who did not agree with him.

Several other witnesses were examined who testified along the same lines. All of the witnesses in rebuttal of insanity were from Nelson county and had known Judge Loving for a number of years and had never heard his sanity questioned.

The prosecution announced its intention of closing its case this afternoon with the examination of several insanity experts.

Adjournment was asked for until 2 o'clock that the prosecution could prepare a hypothetical question.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Mysterious Death.

New York, June 27.—Baffled to explain how the mangled body of a young man was catapulted through the window of a Third avenue trolley car near the east tower of the Brooklyn bridge, the New York police department has assigned its cleverest detectives to account for a tragedy, the mystery of which might puzzle Sherlock Holmes himself.

The victim is believed, from cards found in his pockets, to have been John Nelson, a Brooklyn machinist. Did he kill himself? Was he murdered? Or did he die by accident? He may have fallen from an "L" car or he may have tumbled from a balloon for all the police can learn.

The Third avenue car was just approaching the bridge tower late last night when a heavy body crashed through the rear platform window into the center of the aisle. It was a man's corpse. The neck and jaw were broken and two ribs were jammed into the lungs. The body couldn't have fallen from directly overhead for the roof of the car extends three feet over the window. There were no wagons or automobiles above which might have struck and hurled it into the air.

The police figured that the man must have tumbled from an "L." or cable train, struck a pillar and bounded sideways into the car. But no car can be found on which such an accident occurred.

There was a panic in the car when the corpse bounded through the window. The conductor and motorman were arrested.

Strike of Street Cleaners.

New York, June 27.—New York's white wings are still on strike. Garbage in the streets and especially in the crowded tenement districts is piling up with alarming rapidity. Many citizens have appealed to the health department to take action, but with the labor tie-up on their hands the department officials are able to do but little. On some of the streets the piles of rubbish are so high and numerous that wagons can hardly pass, and the odor of decayed animal and vegetable matter is almost unbearable. An added menace to the safety of citizens is the fire in fresh ash heaps. In many places there are blazes of considerable proportion along the sidewalks threatening the tenements and the lives of children in the street. The strike extended yesterday and more than half of the city is affected.

The strikers say they do not intend to let others take their places pending settlement. In several instances strike breakers have been pulled from their wagons and beaten.

Summoned Rockefeller.

Chicago, June 27.—In accordance with his announcement made yesterday that he would summon officials of the Standard Oil Company, including John D. Rockefeler, to appear before him to give information concerning the working of the oil trust, United States District Judge Landis today instructed his clerk to issue subpoenas directing thirteen of them to be in his court on July 6. John D. Rockefeller is one of them.

The Haywood Case.

Boise, Idaho, June 27.—"Big Bill" Davis will be on the stand again today in the Haywood case. Davis, perhaps the most interesting of the defence's witnesses, was called to impeach Harry Orchard's testimony. He is the man Orchard said led one thousand miners from the Couer D' Alene to the Warner, Idaho, in 1899 to dynamite the Bunker Hill mine and later offered Orchard $500 to blow up the Vindicator workings, besides telling of plans to wreck train-loads of non-union men and blow up the Independence Railroad station. All these conversations with Orchard Davis emphatically denied on the witness stand yesterday.

Senator Borah, cross-examining the witness, had several hot tilts with the latter yesterday. The Senator led Davis into several traps. Davis dodged these embarrassments, however, by pleading failure of memory. Of one thing, however, he was positive—the threat that he said Orchard made against former Governor Steunenberg.

War Inevitable.

Guatemala City, June 27.—War between Nicaragua and Salvador and Guatemala is believed to be only a matter of a few days now. President Zelaya's ambition to join all the Central American States in a confederacy, with himself as its head, is believed to make hostilities inevitable. If the struggle begins it will probably involve all Central America before the war ends. Guatemala, Honduras, Salvador and Costa Rica are expected eventually to line up for their own protection against their aggressive neighbor, Nicaragua.

Advices today from Truxillo, Honduras, indicate that Zelaya is preparing to strike soon against Guatemala and Salvador.

The moment Guatemala is attacked Salvador and Guatemala are expected to announce an alliance.

A declaration of war is expected at any time.

Charged With Wrecking Train.

Paris, June 27.—The wrecking of a passenger train in a tunnel near Port Vendres early today is laid by the authorities at the door of the revolting wine growers in the Midi. Dispatches from Herpiginan give meagre details of the wreck, saying the train was wrecked under mysterious circumstances. It is intimated that a rail was tampered with causing the wreck. No mention is made of any casualties in the dispatches.

The wine growers revolt promises to cause further trouble in the Chamber of Deputies in the near future. Notice was served today on Premier Clemenceau by Deputy Blanc that he will seek to impeach the prime minister for his attitude toward the Midi peasants.

Little Girl Murdered.

New York, June 27.—With every hour of their investigation of the circumstances of the death of Viola Boylan, eight years old, whose body was found today in the cellar of her parents' home in Second avenue, the police are becoming more convinced they have to deal with one of the most atrocious and mysterious murders of recent months. Indications are that the girl had been brutally maltreated before being killed. An Italian, said to have made threats against the child, is being sought by the police. Little Viola was a general favorite in the neighborhood and the finding of her body has aroused the community. There was vigorous talk of the treatment which should be given the murderer if found.

Charged With Assault.

New York, June 27.—Three men were arrested today on the charge of being the assailants of Sadie Woods, 19, who was found unconscious in a hallway at 88 Murray street last night. They are Martin and Wm. Whalen and Henry Menke, Miss Woods is at Bellevue Hospital in a critical condition as the result of her treatment, and the men will be held pending the outcome.

Jefferies Will Fight Victor.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 27.—Before going to San Francisco where he will referee the Squires-Burns fight, Jim Jefferies said he would fight Squires, if the latter beat Burns; also that he would meet Burns if the latter whipped Squires and all the leading American aspirants.

Taylorsville, Miss., June 27.—Two girls were drowned and two taken from the water so exhausted that it is believed they will die, as the result of a party of sixteen young women being caught in an eddy while bathing yesterday in Fisher's Creek. All were members of a Sunday school picnic.

Mother's Terrible Deed.

Formosa, Kansas, June 27.—Mrs. Peter Johnson cut the throat of her two children and her own today. All are dead. Her husband a wealthy stock and grain dealer, killed himself three weeks ago by drinking carbolic acid. She has been acting strangely ever since.

Murderers Hanged.

Jefferson City, Mo., June 27.—Convicts Harry Vaughan, George Ryan and Edward Raymond were hanged here today at the same moment. The trio killed two guards in the Jefferson City prison in October, 1905.

The New York Stock Market.

New York, June 27.—There was a great deal of irregularity to the market in the first hour, but the tone was confident. The important factor was the scant supply of stock, leaving it easy for the room traders to bid up prices whenever any moderate buying orders appeared.

The State Board of Education held a long executive session in Richmond Tuesday to discuss the advisability of puplishing a Virginia School Journal. It was decided to inaugurate such a publication. The executive committee will elect an editor and a manager at a guaranteed salary of $1,500, which may be supplemented by an amount not exceeding $500, provided the additional sum is earned by the publication. The executive committee will also determine when and where the Journal shall be published. The first number will be issued in September.

The Fire at Pine Beach.

The fire yesterday at Pine Beach, a resort filled with hotels of varying sizes, restaurants, stores, and places of amusement, just outside the Jamestown Exposition grounds, was disastrous. It destroyed frame structures covering a large area in the territory between Virginia and Maryland avenues and 102d and 103d streets, including Exposition avenue.

This district is immediately on the outside of the western fence of the exposition grounds, extending to a point near the Pine Beach Hotel, and north to Hampton Roads from the trolley track, which runs from the exposition fence at Maryland avenue to the original Pine Beach pier, at the mouth of the Elizabeth river.

Conservative estimates of the losses place the total at upward of $250,000.

THE MISSING BOY.

The fate of Harry Volker, an eighteen-year-old boy, of Washington, who disappeared Monday while picnicking at Glymont, Md., is still a mystery. It is generally believed that the boy was drowned while swimming. The police of the Washington harbor boat Vigilant spent the greater part of yesterday dragging the river near Glymont in an effort to recover the body, but their work was without reward. After spending two or three hours dragging, the men on the Vigilant divided themselves into squads and, assisted by the boy's parents and Fathers O'Brien and Keane, of St. Aloysius Church, Washington, scoured the woods, and inquired of the residents of that neighborhood, in the hope that the boy had wandered off, as was first supposed. Father Keane, it is said, has offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of the boy alive.

LATER.

The body of Volker was recovered floating in the water below Glymont this morning.

KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The Woodlawn Circle of King's Daughters gave a well appointed musical and dramatic entertainment at their Hall in Fairfax county on Tuesday evening, assisted by Washington talent. There were also several private parties from Alexandria who met them at Royal street and all left on a special train for Mt. Vernon.

Upon their arrival they were met with teams and given an old time hayride to the hall. After the entertainment refreshments were served. Mrs. Walton received and was assisted by Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Francis E. Truax and Miss Abbie Gillingham. The committee who kindly assisted the King's Daughters, were Mr. E. S. Walton, A. S. Gillingham, Harom Roberts, Geo. W. West and J. C. Cox.

A meeting of the democratic State senatorial committee of this district was held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Hotel Fleischmann for the purpose of fixing a date for a primary to nominate a candidate for State senator for the district, which embraces the city and county of Alexandria and Fairfax and Prince William counties.

A resolution was adopted fixing the date of the primary on September 10 and giving notice that all those who want to become candidates must file notice of their intention 30 days prior to the date of the primary.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, in the presence of a large number of friends of the contracting parties. A reception followed the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Walgamot subsequently left on a bridal trip through the west.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice L. H. Thompson presiding.]

There were three cases before the Police Court this morning.

A small colored boy, who had been arrested for disorderly conduct, was turned over to his parents for correction. It was alleged that he was incorrigible, and his parents were told that if they failed to keep him at home at night or if he should be arrested again for annoying other people, the boy would be sent to the reform school.

Another case was that of a young white man who was charged with abusive language toward a young white woman. The trouble was the result of the placing of a swing on a square in the southwestern section of the city. A crowd had been gathering nightly and people living on the square had been annoyed at times until after midnight by the people who gathered. The owner of the swing was ordered to remove the same.

The other case was that of a former occupier of a home in the northwestern section of the city who was charged by the owner of the house with removing a spiggot after he had vacated the premises. The case was dismissed.

The American Magazine for July has been received from its publishers in New York, and from start to finish is a most excellent issue. In it, "Mr. Dooley" tells about the presidential candidates. "Manhattan, an island outgrow," is described. "Talks with Walt Whitman" is contributed, and Ray Stannard Baker, from an interesting though prejudiced standpoint, tells the story of "The Black Belt." "The Passing of the Pay Car" and "A Revolution in Travel" are good articles. Marion Crawford's serial and Adventures in Contentment" grow in interest and the short stories are above the average.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 27, 1907.

Killed by Explosion.

As the result of the premature explosion of a box of dynamite near Tola, Charlotte county, Va., Tuesday afternoon, eight persons were killed outright and six others seriously injured. Two of the victims were Americans; the others Italians. One man was fatally injured. The accident happened in a deep cut where a force of about fifteen men were engaged in the construction of a part of the Tidewater Railway. When a box containing 50 pounds of dynamite exploded, and all in the immediate vicinity were killed. The victims were blown to atoms and fragments of the bodies were scattered in all directions. For some distance around the scene heads, arms, and legs were picked up. One Italian was blown so far into the embankment that the body had to be dug out with picks. A dinkey engine, standing in the yards, was blown to pieces. The explosion was heard for miles around, and near-by houses were damaged by the terrific shock. The cause of the explosion is unknown, as the victims were the only persons in the vicinity.

Every Man His Own Doctor.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, cold, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumanic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, billiousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; He says: 'Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two said it was kidney; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranted to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and an, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggist, 50c.

Killed by Lightning.

There was a series of thunder storms in New York and vicinity yesterday, in which lives were lost and some damage done.

A man was instantly killed by a bolt in Brooklyn in the storm which occurred yesterday evening, and a young girl met her death while seeking refuge under a tree near Orange, N. J.

The girl was Miss McKenna, daughter of J. A. McKenna, of Newark. She was with her father and sister at Union, near Orange, when the storm came up in the afternoon. All three got under a tree, which was soon struck. The McKenna girl was instantly killed. Her sister was seriously hurt, and the father received some injuries from the bolt.

The man killed in Brooklyn was John Lawless, fifty years old.

Salesman Murdered.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Notice to City Taxpayers.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1907

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1907 are now in the hands of the collector. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1907, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent., and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1907, he shall allow a discount of five per cent., and on all bills not paid on the 1st of December, 1907, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent. upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1908, damages at the rate of six per cent. per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law.

P. F. GORMAN,
je17jy1 Collector City Taxes.
